
the 1990s, the number of people in the world who are under 15 years of age is expected to increase from 1.1 billion to 1.5 billion. The number of people aged 65 and over is expected to increase from 200 million to 400 million. The number of people aged 15 and over is expected to increase from 3.5 billion to 4.5 billion. The number of people aged 15 and over is expected to increase from 3.5 billion to 4.5 billion. The number of people aged 15 and over is expected to increase from 3.5 billion to 4.5 billion.

The first of these is the fact that the church is a place of worship, and as such it is a place where the people of God are gathered together to praise God and to receive His grace.
 The second is the fact that the church is a place of fellowship, and as such it is a place where the people of God are gathered together to share their lives with one another.
 The third is the fact that the church is a place of service, and as such it is a place where the people of God are gathered together to serve one another and the world.
 The fourth is the fact that the church is a place of hope, and as such it is a place where the people of God are gathered together to look forward to the life of the future.
 The fifth is the fact that the church is a place of love, and as such it is a place where the people of God are gathered together to love one another and the world.
 The sixth is the fact that the church is a place of peace, and as such it is a place where the people of God are gathered together to seek peace and to promote it.
 The seventh is the fact that the church is a place of justice, and as such it is a place where the people of God are gathered together to seek justice and to promote it.
 The eighth is the fact that the church is a place of mercy, and as such it is a place where the people of God are gathered together to show mercy and to receive it.
 The ninth is the fact that the church is a place of forgiveness, and as such it is a place where the people of God are gathered together to seek forgiveness and to give it.
 The tenth is the fact that the church is a place of reconciliation, and as such it is a place where the people of God are gathered together to seek reconciliation and to give it.
 The eleventh is the fact that the church is a place of unity, and as such it is a place where the people of God are gathered together to seek unity and to give it.
 The twelfth is the fact that the church is a place of communion, and as such it is a place where the people of God are gathered together to share in the Eucharist and to receive it.
 The thirteenth is the fact that the church is a place of mission, and as such it is a place where the people of God are gathered together to go out into the world and to bring the Gospel to all people.
 The fourteenth is the fact that the church is a place of witness, and as such it is a place where the people of God are gathered together to bear witness to the truth of the Gospel.
 The fifteenth is the fact that the church is a place of prayer, and as such it is a place where the people of God are gathered together to pray to God and to receive His answer.
 The sixteenth is the fact that the church is a place of fasting, and as such it is a place where the people of God are gathered together to fast and to receive the grace of the fast.
 The seventeenth is the fact that the church is a place of almsgiving, and as such it is a place where the people of God are gathered together to give alms and to receive the grace of the gift.
 The eighteenth is the fact that the church is a place of charity, and as such it is a place where the people of God are gathered together to show charity and to receive the grace of the deed.
 The nineteenth is the fact that the church is a place of hospitality, and as such it is a place where the people of God are gathered together to show hospitality and to receive the grace of the welcome.
 The twentieth is the fact that the church is a place of hospitality, and as such it is a place where the people of God
 are gathered together to show hospitality and to receive the grace
 of the welcome.

The church is a place of many things, and it is a place where the people of God are gathered together to do many things. It is a place of worship, fellowship, service, hope, love, peace, justice, mercy, forgiveness, reconciliation, unity, communion, mission, witness, prayer, fasting, almsgiving, charity, and hospitality. It is a place where the people of God are gathered together to share in the life of God and to receive His grace. It is a place where the people of God are gathered together to share their lives with one another and to serve one another and the world. It is a place where the people of God are gathered together to look forward to the life of the future.
 It is a place where the people of God are gathered together to love one another and the world. It is a place where the people of God are gathered together to seek peace and to promote it. It is a place where the people of God are gathered together to seek justice and to promote it. It is a place where the people of God are gathered together to show mercy and to receive it. It is a place where the people of God are gathered together to seek forgiveness and to give it. It is a place where the people of God are gathered together to seek reconciliation and to give it. It is a place where the people of God are gathered together to seek unity and to give it. It is a place where the people of God are gathered together to share in the Eucharist and to receive it. It is a place where the people of God are gathered together to go out into the world and to bring the Gospel to all people. It is a place where the people of God are gathered together to bear witness to the truth of the Gospel. It is a place where the people of God are gathered together to pray to God and to receive His answer. It is a place where the people of God are gathered together to fast and to receive the grace of the fast. It is a place where the people of God are gathered together to give alms and to receive the grace of the gift. It is a place where the people of God are gathered together to show charity and to receive the grace of the deed. It is a place where the people of God are gathered together to show hospitality and to receive the grace of the welcome.